

Name: _____ Date: _____

Teacher/Period: _____ Final Grade: _____ / 10

Counting Fish Relate Counting to Addition and Subtraction

Question 1 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

If you catch 3 fish and then catch 2 more, how many fish have you caught in total?

Answer:

Question 2 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

A fisherman caught 5 fish on his first fishing trip. The next day, he went fishing again and caught 2 more. How many fish did he catch in total?

Answer:

Question 3 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

You have 6 worm baits. If you use 3 for fishing, how many worm baits are left?

Answer:

Question 4 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

If you have 8 lures and you lose 2 while fishing, how many lures do you have left?

Answer:

Question 5 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

A bucket had 7 fish in it. If fisherman adds 2 more fish, how many fish are there in the bucket?

Answer:

Question 6 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

A fisherman starts the day with zero fishes. After his first cast, he catches 2 fishes. How many fishes does he have now?

Answer:

Question 7 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

If a fisherman baits his hook with 3 worms and then removes 2, how many worms are left on his hook?

Answer:

Question 8 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

A fisherman has 6 squid baits. He uses 2 for his fishing. How many squid baits does he have left?

Answer:

Question 9 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

A friend gave you 4 fishing hooks. You already had 3. How many fishing hooks do you have now?

Answer:

Question 10 (Short Answer)

_____ / 1

You caught 6 fish today and caught 4 fish yesterday. How many fish did you catch in total?

Answer:

Answer Key for Counting Fish Relate Counting to Addition and Subtraction

1: 5

2: 7

3: 3

4: 6

5: 9

6: 2

7: 1

8: 4

9: 7

10: 10